This afternoon, a junk which cape zed off the new Reclamation on Saturday afternoon was successfully raised. The junk was coming from Wanchat with a cargo of bar iron when she was caught by a strong gust of wind, which caused her to ship water, and sink. There were eight persons on board, including three children. All were, of course, thrown into the water, but fortunately the accident was witnessed by Mr Eagar, of the P. W. On Sunday, however, she discovered that the agreement was not being kept, and at once dismissed Tong Kwong. On Monday afternoon he reappeared and demanded his wages, and on Miss Langley refusing he pushed her violently against the door, picked up a piece of wood and threatened to strike her. An amah came to the rescue, and the aggressive Tong was expelled. The amah and Miss Daisy Kirk corroborated, and after hearing a witness for the defence, Mr Wodehouse imposed a fine of $5 with the alternative of fourteen days' imprisonment. He also bound the defendant over in two sureties of $10 each to be of good behaviour for three months, or in default ordered his imprisonment for one

The cause of the present ferment in Mrs Farmer Ch'augsha is the rumour of Mr Gardner's | Capt. O. Getley expedition into Hunau with the view of opening the province to foreign trade, and the suspicion on the part of the Chou Han party that the appointment of the new Governor, Wu Ta-cheng, has been made with the view of facilitating the scheme. It was with the object of resisting this supposed attempt at opening Hupan that Chou Han issued his placards on the night of the 12th, and posted up his new manifesto in the Temple of the Queen of Heaven on the following day. Perhaps your readers would not object to get some insight into the contents of this remarkable
